

Signature Resolution Welcomes Justin T. Goodwin to Our Panel of Neutrals

Veteran class action litigator brings deep courtroom experience — and the patience to hear every person in the room..

LOS ANGELES, CA (AUGUST 24, 2026) — Signature Resolution is proud to announce that Justin T. Goodwin has joined our panel of neutrals. He will serve as a mediator in class and collective actions, employment disputes, and complex commercial matters, including false advertising, PAGA, wage and hour, trade secrets, and more — the same disputes he spent his career litigating in state and federal courts across the country.

In session, Justin hears out each party's concerns before the conversation turns to numbers, building the credibility he draws on when the negotiation gets hard. He arrives prepared on the merits, is candid with every party, and does not treat the end of the day as the end of the effort: if a matter does not resolve in session, he keeps working it until the parties find a path through.

Justin began his career at Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, where he litigated multi-district, bet-the-business wage and hour class actions. He went on to help build DTO Law from the ground up, where he broadened his practice into consumer class actions spanning the automotive, food, consumer packaged goods, technology, and retail industries, among others, along with complex commercial litigation and the full spectrum of employment disputes. He serves as a volunteer settlement officer and mediator with the Los Angeles Superior Court and has maintained an active pro bono practice throughout his career.

"Justin's litigation career gives him a firsthand read on how disputes resolve, and that experience makes him a valuable addition to our roster of neutrals," said Dario Higuchi, founder and Chief Executive Officer of Signature Resolution. "We are proud to welcome him to our panel."

Justin's work has earned consistent accolades, including annual recognition from Benchmark Litigation and Best Lawyers in America for Commercial Litigation, selection as one of the "Top 40 Under 40" by both the Daily Journal and Benchmark Litigation, and being named to the Los Angeles Business Journal's "Leaders of Influence: Thriving in their 40s."

Justin earned his Juris Doctor from Stanford Law School and his Bachelor of Arts from the University of California, Irvine.
