

George Knopfler joins Signature Resolution with expertise in construction law

From serving as an Assistant United States Attorney to experience in construction and property development, Mr. Knopfler brings versatility and perspective to the mediation practice.

LOS ANGELES – July 11, 2022 – Signature Resolution, a leader in alternative dispute resolution, today welcomed George Knopfler to its team of neutral mediators. Mr. Knopfler is uniquely qualified to empathize with litigants on both sides of a case, having tried an almost equal number of cases for plaintiffs and defendants.

As a mediator, Mr. Knopfler brings balance and perspective to disputing parties. He has received praise from opposing counsel for his understanding, conscientiousness, and subject matter expertise. “Lawyers often fall in love with their cases, or they overlook basic problems in their claims or defenses,” said Mr. Knopfler. “They cannot or will not focus on the blemishes. It’s my job to point them out.”

Mr. Knopfler’s legal career began in 1980 as a federal prosecutor in the Northern District of California. Before and during law school, Mr. Knopfler worked in construction, gaining an intimate understanding of the industry that led to a passion for practicing construction law.

In 1987, Mr. Knopfler leveraged this passion and founded Knopfler & Robertson, a mid-sized Los Angeles-based litigation firm, specializing in construction, insurance, and business matters. Mr. Knopfler was also a partner at Knopfler & Pazos and of counsel at Hamrick & Evans, where he successfully obtained over $60,000,000 in jury trial verdicts.

“George’s range of experience in business, construction, and insurance law is second to none,” said Signature Resolution Partner and CEO Dario Higuchi. “His four decades of experience will be an asset for clients navigating construction disputes.”
