

Signature Resolution Welcomes Hon. Mitchell Beckloff (Ret.) to Panel of Neutrals

Former Los Angeles County Superior Court judge brings a vast legal acumen in civil, probate and family law matters

LOS ANGELES (April 8, 2024) - Signature Resolution, a leader in alternative dispute resolution, is pleased to announce the addition of Hon. Mitchell Beckloff (Ret.) to its panel of neutrals. After an illustrious judicial career that spanned over two decades on the Los Angeles County Superior Court bench, Judge Beckloff brings a wealth of experience and a deep understanding of civil, probate, and family law matters.

"My journey from the bench to Signature Resolution marks a transition fueled by a passion for effective dispute resolution," said Judge Beckloff. "Over the years, I've had the privilege of presiding over diverse and high-profile cases, honing my skills in navigating complex legal terrain and fostering meaningful dialogue. As I step into my role as a neutral, I bring with me a commitment to impartiality, thoroughness, and clear communication. I am eager to leverage my experience to facilitate constructive resolutions and uphold the integrity of the legal process at Signature Resolution."

Throughout his notable career, Judge Beckloff has earned widespread respect for his thorough preparation, ability to digest complex legal issues, clear and effective communication skills, and genuine connection with attorneys and litigants. His portfolio includes presiding over several high-profile and intricate cases, such as the probate estate of entertainer Michael Jackson, the trust of Herbalife founder Mark Hughes, an environmental lawsuit related to the decommissioning of the San Onofre nuclear power plant, and a constitutional challenge concerning the return of Bruce's Beach to the rightful heirs in Manhattan Beach.

"We are thrilled to welcome Judge Beckloff to Signature Resolution," said Dario Higuchi, Signature Resolution founding partner and managing member. "With a proven track record of presiding over complex, high-profile cases, combined with his exemplary communication and problem-solving skills, he brings a comprehensive understanding of legal complexities to his role as a neutral at the firm. We are confident that Judge Beckloff's contributions will further enhance our ability to deliver effective and fair solutions to our clients."

Judge Beckloff's tenure at the Los Angeles County Superior Court was marked by leadership and versatility, having served in nearly every division of the court. His duties included serving as the supervising judge of the Probate Division from 2007 to 2014, overseeing the court's West District, and briefly taking on a temporary role as a justice pro tem in Division Seven of the Second Appellate District Court of Appeal. His commitment to justice was further exemplified during his time in the Writs and Receivers department, dealing with significant matters in CEQA, land use, municipal affairs, election law, and provisional remedies.

An alumnus of UCLA, Judge Beckloff went on to Loyola Law School, where he was awarded a dean's academic merit full-tuition scholarship. His academic excellence was recognized with nine American Jurisprudence Awards and the Bancroft-Whitney Academic Achievement Award. His commitment to legal scholarship and excellence was evident during his time as a staff member and editor for the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review.

In his role at Signature Resolution, Judge Beckloff aims to utilize his extensive judicial experience to facilitate fair, efficient, and effective dispute resolution. His approach is defined by thorough preparation, clear communication, patience, fairness, and a steadfast commitment to de-escalation and impartiality.
