

Signature Resolution Welcomes Allison Eckstrom to Panel of Neutrals

Eckstrom has over twenty years experience in employment law

LOS ANGELES, CA. (March 3, 2025) - Signature Resolution, a leader in alternative dispute resolution, is pleased to announce that Allison Eckstrom has joined its panel of neutrals. With over 20 years of experience in employment law, Eckstrom specializes in wage and hour class and representative actions as well as single-plaintiff litigation.

“I’m excited to transition to full-time mediation and join Signature Resolution’s panel. This next chapter in my career presents a wonderful opportunity to help parties navigate their complicated disputes with strategic insight. I’ve always prioritized understanding all sides of an issue, and I look forward to using my experience to assist my future clients in finding fair and effective resolutions,” said Eckstrom.

Eckstrom’s distinguished career includes over 250 class and representative actions in both state and federal courts, handling complex employment matters across a variety of industries, including retail, healthcare, technology and financial services. She has represented clients in high-stakes wage and hour disputes, and her strategic insight into complex employment issues has earned her a stellar reputation in the legal community.

Before joining Signature Resolution, Eckstrom was a partner at Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner, where she co-led the Employment Class and Collective Actions Team. Earlier in her career, she also served as a law clerk at the Hawaii Supreme Court, an experience that helped shape her deep understanding of the law.

“Allison’s unparalleled expertise in employment law, combined with her previous mediation experience, will make her a great asset to our clients. We look forward to providing our clients with another professional with such deep expertise in employment law and such a great reputation.” said Dario Higuchi, Signature Resolution founding partner and managing member.

At Signature Resolution, Eckstrom will specialize in mediating employment-related disputes, including wage and hour issues, class actions, and other complex legal matters. Her approach to mediation combines empathy with a keen attention to detail, ensuring that all parties are heard and that legal nuances are carefully addressed to reach effective, lasting resolutions.
