Signature Resolution Welcomes Diana Maier to Panel of Neutrals

Twenty plus-year veteran of law and policy joins as mediator, bringing expertise in employment and business disputes

SAN FRANCISCO (Jan. 20, 2026) - Signature Resolution is pleased to announce that Diana Maier has joined its panel of neutrals, where she will serve as a mediator. Maier leverages three decades of experience spanning mediation, employment litigation on both the defense and plaintiff sides, workplace investigations, public defense, and policy advising. This unique career path has equipped her to approach complex disputes with compassion, transparency, and wisdom.

“Throughout my career, whether in the courtroom, the workplace, or at the negotiating table, my focus has been on translating deep conflict into meaningful progress,” said Maier. “After eight years of mediating privately and on court panels, as well as running my law firm, Maier Law Group, I am thrilled to let my law partner take over the firm, and truly devote myself to conflict resolution. I am adept at creating mediation environments where parties feel heard and are able to move efficiently past adversarial deadlock and toward inspired solutions that serve long-term interests and well-being. Signature Resolution’s commitment to excellence and collaborative philosophy aligns perfectly with my goals.”

Maier’s practice at Signature Resolution centers on employment disputes of all kinds as well as workplace mediations. Diana will also mediate most other kinds of civil matters, such as contract law, business, and landlord-tenant disputes. Diana’s background as both plaintiff and defense employment counsel ensures inherent balance and impartiality. This combined with her extensive experience resolving highly nuanced workplace issues, allows her to identify underlying issues and guide discussions toward informed, productive settlements.

Maier’s diverse professional journey began in Washington, D.C., where she served as a foreign policy adviser for Congressman Henry Waxman and worked as a lobbyist and Senior Legislative Assistant at a policy organization. In both places, Maier learned to translate complex legal and policy issues into clear, actionable guidance. Following her graduation from Stanford Law School in 1998, Maier became a highly effective defense attorney with the Santa Clara County Public Defender’s Office. She later co-founded Maier Law Group, a boutique employment law and workplace investigations firm. Maier’s background, particularly her investigative expertise, enables her to uncover the core drivers of conflict quickly.

“Diana brings a rare mix of policy work, courtroom experience, mediation success, and a strong commitment to lawyer well-being, which allows her to see the full picture in every case,” said Dario

Higuchi, Chief Executive Officer of Signature Resolution. "Her legal work, as well as her work founding Joy in the Law, shows her holistic approach to conflict and her dedication to helping people resolve disputes with purpose. We're thrilled to welcome someone with her integrity and insight to our Northern California team."

Committed to leadership and service, Maier was elected in 2024 to the Board of Directors of Marin Water. She is also the founder of Joy in the Law, a conference series and California Bay Area legal movement dedicated to helping legal professionals reconnect with their purpose, joy, and highest ethical intent in practicing law. Maier earned her Juris Doctor from Stanford University School of Law and her Bachelor of Science, Magna Cum Laude, from Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service. She has been recognized as a Northern California SuperLawyer since 2023, and was awarded California Lawyer's Attorney of the Month award in 2021.
