

Signature Resolution Welcomes Comm. Jeannie Lowe (Ret.) to Its Panel of Neutrals

Former Superior Court Commissioner brings judicial precision, deep family law expertise, and pragmatic risk assessment to mediation.

SAN DIEGO, CA (MARCH 23, 2026) — Signature Resolution is proud to announce that Comm. Jeannie Lowe (Ret.) has joined its panel of neutrals, where she will serve as a mediator and judge pro tem, specializing in family law disputes. A former Commissioner of the San Diego County Superior Court and one of the most trusted family law neutrals in private dispute resolution, Commissioner Lowe brings a depth of experience in complex high-asset dissolution, custody, support, and property division matters that spans private practice, ten years on the bench, and more than a decade of dedicated private dispute resolution.

Commissioner Lowe is known for her ability to offer a calm, steady presence and maintain a structured process in disputes that are often among the most emotionally charged in private dispute resolution. She helps parties understand the practical realities of their positions, de-escalates conflict through patience and clarity, and guides families toward durable agreements that reflect both the law and the lives at stake. Her approach is balanced and grounded, attentive to legal precision without losing sight of the human dimensions of each case.

“Family law disputes are deeply personal and often emotionally charged. My role as a mediator is to create a steady, structured environment where people feel heard, where the law is applied thoughtfully, and where practical solutions can emerge. Resolution is possible when parties are guided with clarity, patience, and respect.”

Before joining Signature Resolution, Commissioner Lowe served ten years as a Commissioner of the San Diego County Superior Court, presiding over high-asset dissolutions, complex custody proceedings, business valuations, and mandatory settlement conferences. Prior to her appointment, Commissioner Lowe sharpened her family law expertise as partner at O’Bryan and Lowe and in the Office of the Family Law Facilitator at the San Diego County Superior Court, working directly with self-represented litigants. Since leaving the bench in 2013, she has dedicated her work entirely to family law mediation and temporary judge assignments, a commitment recognized most recently by the San Diego Family Law Bar Association's Crystal Gavel Award in 2025, thirteen years into her post-judicial career.

“Commissioner Lowe's record in family law is a testament to what genuine dedication to this work looks like,” said Dario Higuchi, founder and Chief Executive Officer of Signature Resolution. “We are proud to welcome her to the Signature Resolution panel.”

Commissioner Lowe has been named a Leading Family Law Private Judge in California by Doyle's Guide and was recognized as Judicial Officer of the Year by the San Diego County

Family Law Specialists in both 2011 and 2012. She received the Distinguished Jurist Award from the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, Southern California Chapter, in 2010.

Commissioner Lowe earned her Juris Doctor from the University of San Diego School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Nevada, Reno.
